LIVINGSTONE MEMORIAL

Kolobeng Mission (also known as the Livingstone Memorial), built in 1847, the third and final mission of David Livingstone, a missionary and explorer of Africa. Located in the country of Botswana, 3 kilometres west of Kumakwane and 25 kilometres west of Gaborone off the Thamaga-Kanye Road, the mission housed a church and a school and was also the home of David Livingstone, his wife Mary Livingstone, and their children. While here, Livingstone converted Sechele I, kgosi of the Bakwena and taught them irrigation methods using the nearby Kolobeng River.

GABANE POTTERY

They are renowned for their unique pottery pieces that are mostly homemade from in-house processed clay. The patterns engraved on the pottery have been adapted from traditional mud hut decorative designs. They provide a wide range of pottery products and services to individuals and corporate.

OLD NALEDI- First settlement

NALEDI - such a beautiful word. Setswana lexicon and general logic dictate that "naledi" be synonymous with the sparkle and beauty of heavenly proportions. And it was exactly that, until history, politics, economics and fate had their way.

Now "Naledi" is Old Naledi. And Old Naledi is the "location" in the southern tip of Gaborone with 50 000 residents crowded in an area too small for 10 000 people. It is the dusty streets meandering between the metal, wood and mud-walled shacks and unfinished houses. The boys loiter in the streets, charred lips hold cigarette stubs, and twitching fingers with grime-filled nails pass the carton of sorghum beer to a friend.

BOTSWANA CRAFT

Is the largest handcraft center in Gaborone. This is where the client will enjoy our traditional cuisine.

THE MALL

No visit to Gaborone would be complete without a visit to the mall, as know as The Main Mall. Designed in the 1960's. The Mall was intended to be the new city's centre.

3 CHIEFS MONUMENTS

These are the 3 Chiefs who played important role in Botswana's independence - Kgosi Khama III of Bangwato, Kgosi Sebele I of Bakwena, Kgosi Bathoen I of Bangwaketse people. The chiefs who travelled to great Britain in 1895 to ask Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the colonies and Queen Victoria to separate Bechuanaland Protectorate from Cecil Rhodes, they asked for our independence.
